

Build your Legal Career!

Are you:

- A student competing in the stampede for vacation clerkships?
- A graduate seeking an entry level position, yet none are advertised?
- A lawyer from interstate or overseas trying to grab onto the grapevine?
- Making a comeback after redundancy?
- Looking for legal work after doing something else for a while?
- Tired of monotony and looking for a change of direction?
- Searching for the elusive career satisfaction you once dreamed of?

Then the Legal Circles Legal Career Mentoring Service is for you

Take CONTROL of your career! We work on YOUR case and map out a plan of action! Specify the outcome you want to achieve, receive one-on-one attention and sound career advice.

For example:

- How can I find a job when there aren't any advertised?
- What's the unique value that I can offer, and how do I convey that?
- What areas of legal practice would suit me best, and how can I access them?
- How should I introduce myself to potential employers?
- How do I write a killer cover letter that stops them in their tracks?
- How can I make sure I do myself justice in an interview?

Fee: $330 including GST for a one hour individual consultation. Follow up material is provided depending on your individual needs as determined in our session. Savings are available on multi-session packages.

"Use what you've got, to get what you want!" -Shelley Dunstone, Founder of Legal Circles

Shelley KNOWS the legal profession in South Australia. Admitted as a lawyer in 1981, she has been a law firm partner and law teacher. Her legal experience spans a wide variety of fields. She has worked in law firms of all sizes and types. Shelley is the author of "A Practical Guide to Drafting Pleadings" (Thomson Reuters). She speaks at conferences around Australia and internationally. She believes that everyone should understand and use their unique and special gifts, and in 2001 founded Legal Circles in order to stop the terrible waste of talent that occurs when people lose sight of this.
